Where to Get Your Medicare Questions Answered

When to contact Medicare

Visit Medicare.gov to:

• See what services Medicare covers
• Get detailed information about Medicare health and prescription drug plans in your area, including costs and services
• Choose and enroll in a Medicare health or prescription drug plan that meets your needs
• Find a Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap) policy in your area
• Find doctors, health care providers, and suppliers who participate in Medicare.
• Get information and forms for filing a Medicare appeal or for letting someone speak with Medicare on your behalf
• Compare the quality of care provided by plans, nursing homes, hospitals, home health agencies, and dialysis facilities
• View Medicare publications

Call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227; TTY: 1-877-486-2048) to:

• Find out your claim status
• Find out deductibles
• Get answers to premium payment questions
• Report fraud
• Appeal a coverage or payment decision you don’t agree with
• Find your level of Extra Help with Medicare prescription drug coverage (Part D) costs if you automatically qualified and didn’t apply
• Get information about coverage, benefits, and preventive services

Create an account at MyMedicare.gov to:

• View and print a copy of your Medicare card
• Track Original Medicare claims and your Part B (Medical Insurance) deductible
• Sign up for electronic Medicare Summary Notices (eMSNs)
Create an account at MyMedicare.gov to: (continued)

- Manage your personal information (like medical conditions, allergies, and implanted devices)
- Sign up to get your Medicare & You handbook electronically (you won't get a printed copy if you choose to get it electronically)
- Manage your personal drug list and pharmacy information
- Search for, add to, and manage a list of your providers and access quality information about them

When to contact Social Security

Visit socialsecurity.gov or call 1-800-772-1213 (TTY: 1-800-325-0778) to:

- See if you’re eligible for Medicare
- Create a “my Social Security” account, to do things like request a replacement Medicare card and report a change of address, name or phone numbers
- Sign up for Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance) and Medicare Part B (Medical Insurance)
- Disenroll from Part B (or disenroll from Part A, if you pay a premium for it)
- Apply for Extra Help with Medicare prescription drug coverage (Part D) costs
- Report a death
- Appeal an Income-Related Monthly Adjustment Amounts (IRMAA) decision (some people pay a higher Part B and/or Part D premium if their income is over a certain amount)

You have the right to get Medicare information in an accessible format, like large print, Braille, or audio. You also have the right to file a complaint if you feel you’ve been discriminated against. Visit Medicare.gov/about-us/nondiscrimination/accessibility-nondiscrimination.html, or call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227) for more information. TTY users can call 1-877-486-2048.
