If you or someone you know is struggling or in crisis and would like to talk to a trained crisis counselor, call or text 988, the free and confidential Suicide & Crisis Lifeline. You can also connect with a counselor through web chat at 988lifeline.org.

The 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline is a national network of local crisis centers that provides free and confidential emotional support if you or someone you know is having thoughts of suicide or experiencing a mental health or substance use crisis. You can talk to a counselor 24 hours a day, 7 days a week in the U.S. Call, text, or chat:

- To talk to someone who cares
- If you feel you might be in danger of hurting yourself
- If you’re concerned about a family member or friend
- To find referrals to mental health treatments and services in your area

Call 911 if you’re in an immediate medical crisis.
Mental health conditions, like depression and anxiety, can happen to anyone at any time. If you think you may have problems that affect your mental health, you can get help. Talk to your doctor or other health care provider if you have:

- Thoughts of ending your life (like a fixation on death or suicidal thoughts or attempts)
- Sad, empty, or hopeless feelings
- Loss of self-worth (like worries about being a burden, feelings of worthlessness, or self-loathing)
- Social withdrawal and isolation (like you don’t want to be with friends, engage in activities, or leave home)
- Little interest in things you used to enjoy
- A lack of energy
- Trouble concentrating
- Trouble sleeping (like difficulty falling or staying asleep, oversleeping, or daytime sleepiness)
- Loss of appetite or weight loss
- Increased use of alcohol or other drugs

Mental health care includes services and programs to help diagnose and treat mental health conditions. These services and programs may be provided in outpatient and inpatient settings. Medicare helps cover outpatient and inpatient mental health care, as well as prescription drugs you may need to treat a mental health condition.
Section 1: Outpatient mental health care & professional services

What Original Medicare covers

Medicare Part B (Medical Insurance) helps cover mental health services you generally get outside of a hospital (like in a clinic, doctor’s office, or therapist’s office) and services a hospital provides in its outpatient department. Part B also covers visits with these providers:

- Psychiatrist or other doctor
- Clinical psychologist
- Clinical social worker
- Clinical nurse specialist
- Nurse practitioner
- Physician assistant

Doctors or other health care providers who participate in Part B must accept assignment. An assignment is an agreement by your doctor, provider, or other supplier to be paid directly by Medicare, to accept the payment amount Medicare approves for the service, and not to bill you for any more than the Medicare deductible and coinsurance. Ask your doctor or other health care provider if they accept assignment before you schedule an appointment. Some health professionals, like clinical social workers and clinical nurse specialists, must always accept assignment. Deductibles and coinsurance may apply.

If your doctor or other health care provider accepts assignment, Part B helps pay for these outpatient services:

- One depression screening each year. The screening must be done in a primary care doctor’s office or primary care clinic that can provide follow-up treatment and referrals. Visit Medicare.gov/coverage/depression-screenings for more information.
- Individual and group psychotherapy with doctors or certain other licensed professionals allowed by the state where you get the services.
- Family counseling, if the main purpose is to help with your treatment.
- Testing to find out if you’re getting the services you need and if your current treatment is helping you.
- Psychiatric evaluation.
- Medication management.
- Certain prescription drugs that aren’t usually “self-administered” (drugs you would normally take on your own), like some injections.
- Diagnostic tests.
- Partial hospitalization.
- A one-time “Welcome to Medicare” preventive visit within the first 12 months you have Part B. This visit includes a review of your potential risk factors for depression. Visit Medicare.gov/coverage/welcome-to-medicare-preventive-visit for more information.
- A yearly “Wellness” visit. This is a good time to talk to your doctor or other health care provider about changes in your mental health, so they can evaluate your changes year to year. Visit Medicare.gov/coverage/yearly-wellness-visits for more information.

Note: If you have a Medicare Advantage Plan, it may offer extra benefits, like certain types of mental health counseling not covered by Original Medicare. Contact your plan for details.

Opioid use disorder treatment services

Medicare covers opioid use disorder treatment services in opioid treatment programs. The services include medication (like methadone, buprenorphine, naltrexone, and naloxone), counseling, drug testing, individual and group therapy, intake activities, and periodic assessments. Medicare covers counseling, therapy services, and periodic assessments both in-person and, in certain circumstances, by virtual delivery (using audio and video communication technology, like your phone or a computer). Talk to your doctor or other health care provider to find out where you can go for these services. Visit Medicare.gov/coverage/opioid-use-disorder-treatment-services for more information.
Alcohol misuse screening & counseling

Medicare covers one alcohol misuse screening each year for adults (including pregnant individuals) who use alcohol, but don’t meet the medical criteria for alcohol dependency. If your health care provider determines you’re misusing alcohol, you can get up to 4 brief face-to-face counseling sessions per year (if you’re competent and alert during counseling). You must get counseling in a primary care setting (like a doctor’s office).

If you have a substance use disorder or a co-occurring mental health disorder, you can get telehealth services from home.

Visit Medicare.gov/coverage/alcohol-misuse-screenings-counseling for more information.

Partial hospitalization

Part B may cover partial hospitalization in some cases, if you meet certain requirements and if your doctor certifies that you would otherwise need inpatient treatment. Partial hospitalization is a structured program of outpatient psychiatric services provided to patients as an alternative to inpatient psychiatric care. It’s more intense than the care you get in a doctor’s or therapist’s office. This type of treatment is provided during the day and doesn’t require an overnight stay.

Medicare helps cover partial hospitalization services when they’re provided through a hospital outpatient department or community mental health center.

Along with your partial hospitalization services, Medicare may also cover:

- Occupational therapy that’s part of your mental health treatment
- Individual patient training and education about your condition

Visit Medicare.gov/coverage/mental-health-care-partial-hospitalization for more information.
What you pay for outpatient mental health care & services

In general, after you pay your yearly Part B deductible, you pay 20% of the Medicare-approved amount for visits to diagnose or treat your condition, if your health care provider accepts assignment.

Screenings

Medicare will pay for:

- One depression screening per year if your health care provider accepts assignment.
- Alcohol misuse screening and counseling if your primary care doctor or other primary care practitioner accepts assignment.

Opioid use disorder treatment services

After you pay the Part B deductible, you pay nothing for opioid use disorder treatment services if you get them from a provider who’s enrolled in Medicare.

Partial hospitalization

For partial hospitalization, after you meet the Part B deductible, you pay:

- A percentage of the Medicare-approved amount for visits to your doctor or other health care provider if they accept assignment.
- Coinsurance for each day of partial hospitalization services you get in a hospital outpatient setting or community mental health center.

If you get your services in a hospital outpatient clinic or hospital outpatient department, you may have to pay an additional copayment or coinsurance amount to the hospital.

Note: If you have a Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap) policy or other health coverage, tell your health care provider so your bills get paid correctly. Visit Medicare.gov/coverage/mental-health-care-outpatient for more information on outpatient mental health services.

What isn’t covered

- Meals.
- Transportation to or from mental health care services.
- Support groups that bring people together to talk and socialize. (Note: This is different from group psychotherapy, which is covered.)
- Testing or training for job skills that isn’t part of your mental health treatment.
What Original Medicare covers

Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance) helps cover mental health services you get in a hospital that require you to be admitted as an inpatient. You can get these services either in a general hospital or in a psychiatric hospital that only cares for people with mental health conditions. No matter which type of hospital you choose, Part A will help cover inpatient mental health services.

Part A covers your:
- Semi-private rooms
- Meals
- General nursing
- Drugs (including methadone to treat an opioid use disorder)
- Other hospital services and supplies as part of your inpatient treatment

Visit Medicare.gov/coverage/mental-health-care-inpatient for more information.

What you pay for inpatient mental health care & services

Medicare measures your use of hospital services (including services you get in a psychiatric hospital) in benefit periods. A benefit period begins the day you’re admitted as an inpatient in a general or psychiatric hospital. The benefit period ends after you haven’t had any inpatient hospital care for 60 days in a row. If you’re admitted to a hospital again after 60 days, a new benefit period begins, and you must pay a new deductible for any inpatient hospital services you get.
There’s no limit to the number of benefit periods you can have when you get mental health care in a general hospital. You can also have multiple benefit periods when you get care in a psychiatric hospital, but there’s a lifetime limit of 190 days. Part A only pays for up to 190 days of inpatient psychiatric hospital services during your lifetime.

As a hospital inpatient, you pay these amounts in 2022:
- $1,556 deductible for each benefit period
- Days 1–60: $0 coinsurance per day of each benefit period
- Days 61–90: $389 coinsurance per day of each benefit period
- Days 91 and beyond: $778 coinsurance per each “lifetime reserve day” after day 90 for each benefit period (up to 60 days over your lifetime)
- Beyond lifetime reserve days: all costs
- 20% of the Medicare-approved amount for mental health services you get from doctors and other providers while you’re a hospital inpatient

Visit Medicare.gov/basics/costs for the most up-to-date costs.

Part B covers certain doctors’ services, outpatient care, medical supplies, and preventive services. This includes mental health services provided by doctors and other health care professionals if you’re admitted as a hospital inpatient. You pay 20% of the Medicare-approved amount for these mental health services while you’re a hospital inpatient.

Note: If you have a Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap) policy or other health coverage, tell your doctor or other health care provider so your bills get paid correctly.

What isn’t covered
- Private duty nursing
- A phone or television in your room
- Personal items, like toothpaste, socks, or razors
- A private room, unless medically necessary
To get Medicare drug coverage (Part D), you must join a Medicare-approved plan that offers drug coverage, like a Medicare drug plan. Medicare drug plans are run by private insurance companies that follow rules set by Medicare. Each plan can vary in cost and in the specific drugs it covers. However, nearly all antidepressants and antipsychotics are required on drug formularies of every Medicare drug plan. It’s important to know your plan’s coverage rules and your rights.

Medicare drug plans have special rules

Will my plan cover the drugs I need?
Most Medicare drug plans have a list of drugs that the plan covers, called a formulary. Medicare drug plans aren’t required to cover all drugs, but they’re required to cover all (with limited exceptions) antidepressant, anticonvulsant, and antipsychotic medications.

Medicare reviews each plan’s formulary to make sure it has a wide range of drugs and that it doesn’t discriminate against certain groups (like people with disabilities or mental health conditions).

If you take prescription drugs for a mental health condition, it’s important to find out if a plan covers your drugs before you enroll. You can write down the names of your current prescriptions and doses on page 16.

Visit Medicare.gov/plan-compare to find out which plans cover your drugs.
Can my drug plan’s formulary change?

Your Medicare drug plan may change its drug list during the year because drug therapies change, new drugs are released, or new medical information becomes available. Plans can also, in certain cases, immediately remove a brand name drug from their formularies if the plan adds a new generic in place of the brand drug, or plans can change the cost or coverage rules for a brand name drug when adding the new generic drug.

If the formulary status of a drug you’re currently taking changes, your plan will send you information about the specific changes. For other changes involving a drug you’re currently taking that will affect you during the year, your plan must do one of these:

- Give you notice at least 30 days before the effective date of the change, or
- At the time you request a refill, provide notice of the change and a month’s supply of the drug under the same plan rules as before the change.

What if my prescriber thinks I need a certain drug that my plan doesn’t cover?

If you’re in a Medicare drug plan, you have the right to ask for a coverage determination (including an exception). You can appoint a representative to help you. Your representative can be a family member, friend, advocate, attorney, financial advisor, doctor, or someone else who will act on your behalf. You, your representative, or your doctor or other prescriber must contact your plan to ask for a coverage determination.

For more information on your appeal rights, see page 19 of this booklet.

Section 5: Definitions

Coinsurance—An amount you may be required to pay as your share of the cost for services after you pay any deductibles. Coinsurance is usually a percentage (for example, 20%).

Copayment—An amount you may be required to pay as your share of the cost for a medical service or supply, like a doctor’s visit, hospital outpatient visit, or prescription drug. A copayment is usually a set amount, rather than a percentage. For example, you might pay $10 or $20 for a doctor’s visit or prescription drug.

Coverage determination—The first decision made by your Medicare drug plan (not the pharmacy) about your drug benefits, including:
- Whether a particular drug is covered.
- Whether you’ve met all the requirements for getting a requested drug.
- How much you’re required to pay for a drug.
- Whether to make an exception to a plan rule when you request it.

The drug plan must give you a prompt decision (72 hours for standard requests, 24 hours for expedited requests). If you disagree with the plan’s coverage determination, the next step is an appeal.

Deductible—The amount you must pay for health care or prescriptions before Original Medicare, your Medicare Advantage Plan, your Medicare drug plan, or your other insurance begins to pay.
Exception—A type of Medicare prescription drug coverage determination. A formulary exception is a drug plan’s decision to cover a drug that’s not on its drug list or to waive a coverage rule. A tiering exception is a drug plan’s decision to charge a lower amount for a drug that’s on its non-preferred drug tier. You or your prescriber must request an exception, and your doctor or other prescriber must provide a supporting statement explaining the medical reason for the exception.

Formulary—A list of prescription drugs covered by a prescription drug plan or another insurance plan offering prescription drug benefits. Also called a drug list.

Lifetime reserve days—In Original Medicare, these are additional days that Medicare will pay for when you’re in a hospital for more than 90 days. You have a total of 60 reserve days that can be used during your lifetime. For each lifetime reserve day, Medicare pays all covered costs except for a daily coinsurance.

Medicare-approved amount—In Original Medicare, this is the amount a doctor or supplier that accepts assignment can be paid. It may be less than the actual amount a doctor or supplier charges. Medicare pays part of this amount and you’re responsible for the difference.

Medicare health plan—Generally, a plan offered by a private company that contracts with Medicare to provide Part A and Part B benefits to people with Medicare who enroll in the plan. Medicare health plans include all Medicare Advantage Plans, Medicare Cost Plans, and Demonstration/Pilot Programs. Programs of All-inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) organizations are special types of Medicare health plans. PACE plans can be offered by public or private companies and provide Part D and other benefits in addition to Part A and Part B benefits.
Medicare drug plan—Medicare drug coverage (Part D) is included in to Original Medicare, some Medicare Cost Plans, some Medicare Private-Fee-for-Service Plans, and Medicare Medical Savings Account Plans. These plans are offered by insurance companies and other private companies approved by Medicare. Medicare Advantage Plans may also offer prescription drug coverage that follows the same rules as Medicare drug plans.

Medigap—Medicare Supplement Insurance policies sold by private insurance companies to fill “gaps” in Original Medicare coverage.

Original Medicare—Original Medicare is a fee-for-service health plan that has 2 parts: Part A (Hospital Insurance) and Part B (Medical Insurance). After you pay a deductible, Medicare pays its share of the Medicare-approved amount, and you pay your share (coinsurance and deductibles).

Premium—The periodic payment to Medicare, an insurance company, or a health care plan for health or prescription drug coverage.
