

Need general information about Medicare?

Go online to get the information you need.

Medicare.gov

- Get detailed information about Medicare health and prescription drug plans in your area, including what they cost and what services they provide.
- Find doctors or other health care providers and suppliers who participate in Medicare.
- See what Medicare covers, including preventive services.
- Get Medicare appeals information and forms.
- Get information about the quality of care provided by plans, nursing homes, hospitals, home health agencies, and dialysis facilities.
- Find out what Medicare costs and how to get help paying costs.

Need personalized Medicare information?

Go online to get the information you need.

MyMedicare.gov

- Manage your personal information (like medical conditions, allergies, and implanted devices).
- Sign up to get the “Medicare & You” handbook electronically. You won’t get a printed copy if you choose to get it electronically.
- Manage your personal drug list and pharmacy information.
- Search for, add to, and manage a list of your favorite providers and access quality information about them.
- Track Original Medicare claims and your Part B deductible status.
- View and order copies of your “Medicare Summary Notice.”